A will case was tried last week in the county of Williamson, which son sumed four or five days, and is distinct to become a leading case in our judich annals. It was the will of Patrick Rees devising property to the amount of 800 000. The testator was subject to paros years of insanity, and the question was whether he was lacid at the time the will was made. The restimony was volumin-ous, covering the conduct of the testator during the period of making his will, be-fore and after. There was an able array of legal ratent on both sides. The argu-ments were delivered by Judge Campbell of Franklin, and Gen. W. B. Bate of this wire for the validity of the will, and by come of insanity, and the question of Frankin, and Gen. W. B.
